From Schiphol Airport Amsterdam (AMS)

Nederlandse Spoorwegen (NS) Dutch railroads – www.ns.nl/en

There is a train station in Barneveld. The training venue is a short 5 minute walk from the train station.
From Schiphol airport to Barneveld Central station: Intercity train runs 2 times per hour from 5 am to midnight. The intercity train with 1 stopover runs every 08 and 38 min over the hour and takes 64 min. Take Track 3 to Amerfoort followed by Track 4b to Barneveld Centraal station.
The price is around 10 euro.

For train- and busrides you have to buy an OV-chipkaart (public transportation chipcard) and upload at least 10 euro's on the card. At Schiphol Plaza there are several ticketmachines where you can buy these OV chipcards. Alternatively you can visit a ticketbooth at Schiphol Plaza and they will assist you.

Local Cab Companies

Taxi Centrale Schiphol

A taxi outside Schiphol airport to Barneveld is around 200 euro on the meter.

You can also order a taxi upfront online. The price then will be around 100 euro.

Taxi Centrale is the official taxi company. www.taxicentrale-schiphol.nl/en

Ofcourse you can order an Uber, but due to high demand they are not likely to be much cheaper.

Car rental

There are several car rental companies located at Schiphol airport. You can easily book a car online upfront. A two week car rental will be around 450 euro (excl gas). Barneveld is a 50 minute car drive from Schiphol (72 km / 45 miles).

Bike rental

If you want to try the country's traditional way of traveling through town or to and from your hotel, you can rent a bicycle in Barneveld. A regular city bike will be around 90 euro for 10 days and an E-bike will be 180 euro for a 10 day rental. <https://www.fietsverhuurbarneveld.nl/verhuur/>
